

19/ 01/18 Prophetic Words from Andy from Pioneer

I pray that the light of God will illuminate the eyes of your imagination, flooding you with light, until you experience the full revelation of the hope of his calling. We know that this is the reason you were called to himself and I pray that you will explore and experience yourselves, all the riches and the wealth that have been freely given to all those holy ones; for you are his true inheritance.- Based on Ephesians 1:18 (The Passion Translation.)

In terms of disciples and relationships the word intentional has very much become part of our distinctive I would say. It's got to be intentional with the discipling, with the things that your trying to roll out. That is the inheritance isn't it- not only having that revelation for ourselves but seeing that cultivated in others around us. So I speak out that you'll see the inheritance fulfilled.

We have become his poetry, a re-created people that will fulfil the destiny he has given each of us, for we are joined to Jesus, the Anointed One. Even before we were born, God planned in advance our destiny and the good works we would do to fulfil it! - Ephesians 2:10 (The Passion Translation)

We are your children and I pray that these guys will be able to further the kingdom. And I thank you that it's an honour to be able of partner with them, even in small ways, and the opportunities arise. I pray that your Kingdom will be furthered by the unity that is here.

And I pray for Resound that you do that as a body- that you're really resound in Bristol. That there are tremors of the holy spirit, there are shifts in the land. There's a lyric I heard ages ago: 'when tectonic plates shift the world wonders if God exists.' In this sense I pray that the people of Bristol knows that he is resounding in that place, that there will be moves, there will be shake ups, but what is firm, what is the fixed position is Jesus, is the fact that he died for every single one of us. And I pray in Bristol at your church that the people coming in and then moving out into the circles of influence will be earthquakes within themselves, that they'll make tremors and waves in where they are, to see people shaken to life.

I pray that for your workplaces in your church- I pray that you'll have people that are using their gifts in their workplaces, who will bring them and sharpen up the church. That there will be songwriters, there will be people that will be able to relate to children, that are calling that next generation into the inheritance that they've been called to, only that they're getting a portion earlier. I pray that there is a generation that receives a portion early, that they get that and they get a matureness in the spirit that is beyond their age that then shakes a whole generation around them. I pray for that in your church that you had a spiritually mature generation that goes out, naturally speaks words of knowledge, naturally calls out what is inside of people that they do not know, because they they are living poetry of Christ, they have been created to fulfil their potential, their God potential, and I pray that this generation will wake that up.

I pray for a real boom in terms of an expanse of people and of imagination to see what can be done; what is church? What is intentional church? It's not arduous, it's super naturally living, naturally. And that in your relationships and your day-to-day, the opportunities won't feel like they're forced, they'll naturally happen, naturally God will revealed, that full revelation will just flow, that words of knowledge will come.

Trudy

I pray that for you to do that you'll be able to see that, that you'll be sat having a cup of tea with someone and you'll just get dropped a little nugget. I feel like God's saying this to you today- go for it. I pray it that will become instinctive, that you'll just see it and you'll go with it, and you'll trust it, that you'll trust yourself and that you'll see fruit.

James

I pray that when you raise up new groups James, that you will know that you are equipped to walk in authority; to walk and stand with justice, that you are equipped to see and reach people wherever, because you are a man filled with the son, who is able to be all things to all men, and God will equip you. I can see you almost like a little shape shifter, being able to see God in people and being able to relate. So when you walk out ,know that God is using you and he's given you eyes to be able to meet with those people. So I pray a blessing upon you and your feet, wherever they take you.

Mike

I pray also for you Mike that you will have wisdom beyond what you can see now. I pray that you'll have discernment to steer strategically. as to where you go, as to where people go around you, that you'll have words of knowledge to say 'why don't you try this, have a think about this', and that will open up opportunities, and it will open up partnerships, it will open up links. I pray you have that God insight, and in that almost 'green room' when you're meeting with God, and then releasing people in the next bit, that you'll just have the most intimate and wonderful times with God. I can see you laughing and thinking 'God you're so good, you're using this opportunity to release this person'. I pray that you'll get that insight and clarity to be able to push people on into that place, over that hurdle or whatever it may be. I pray you'll have wisdom and strategy in partnership and that underlying relationship with God which is ebbing and flowing- you ask you shall receive, knock on that door you it shall open.

Claire

Claire I pray for real strength a real sharpness, not only in your vision but in your actions-that there's an accuracy that you see, you target and you Conquer. That you'll follow your heart convictions, your spirit convictions and that sometimes you'll feel like you need to be driven by God being the arrow, but sometimes you'll just be soaring before you even realise it, God's moving you somewhere. I pray that you just know that you are equipped to be able to not only hit the target, but break through that target- to be able to go beyond. The natural is that target, the supernatural is beyond that. I pray that you'll know that you are sharp, you are purposeful when your sent out, and that purpose is to bring breakthrough, not just to meet, not just to hit the nail on the head so to speak, but to breakthrough to see that beyond; just a natural encouragement to be supernatural revelation that sees breakthrough. I pray that for healing, I pray that you'll see redemption in emotional healing, in physical healing and there'll be beyond a sense of wellbeing- a sense of fulfilment of redemption. Particularly I pray that you'll see where there is been heartache and brokenness you'd see redemption and then surpassed- that is a breakthrough of God bringing something that is beyond 'this is the goal, this is what I want to see achieved for redemption' beyond. God has got fullness.
